

Dance Party

Mrs. William Brodsley and Mrs. Bernard Snitzer met at the home of Mrs. Bernard Yeskin to make final preparations for the forthcoming "Yom Kippur" dance, to be held at the Club Alondra on September 15.

B'nai B'rith 'Yom Kippur' Dance Set

South Bay B'nai B'rith Women's "Yom Kippur Night Ball" on Saturday, September 15 at the "Club Alondra" in Lawndale.

There will be an excellent buffet-style dinner with roast beef, turkey, corned beef, salads, relishes, drinks and desserts in abundance. The circular dance floor and festive decorations will provide a proper setting for popular dancing and audience-participation dances. Fine entertainment will be provided by a well-known local "Disco Jockey."

Everyone is invited to attend, and tickets may be obtained by contacting: Mrs. Bernard (Roselyn) Snitzer, president, 2720 West 174 St., Torrance, Phone: DA. 4-0644.

CARD PARTY

The Torrance-Gardena Soroptimist club are having a "card party" at 8 p.m., Saturday, September 15, at the home of one of its members, Mary Pagac, 1528 Post ave.

Prizes will be presented and refreshments will be served. Tickets can be obtained from any of its members or at the door.

All members, their husbands and friends are invited to this gala affair. All proceeds are for the club's service fund.

Fashion Notes

FALL LOOK INCLUDES "MOTHER-OF-PEARL"

Be a fair lady and make rhinestones your asset, make it into a dream and make it real! Make it in the form of a smart looking pin, necklace or dazzling bracelet.

Just one piece, that's all it takes to finish that certain outfit. And I know of nothing more brilliant than the coming of rhinestones for the coming of fall!

Rhinestone pins, large but not ponderous, find an ideal spot on collar, lapel, high on the shoulder, at the waist, hip or sleeve cuff.

Dazzling rhinestones bib necklaces, wide flexible bracelets and other matching rhinestone pieces are set in both silvery metal and gold colored metal. Chain and mesh styles, molded with tiny, brilliant rhinestones, achieve a look of incomparable richness.

Stone set jewelry gleams with dark, rich colors for fall, some of which has a metallic tint or a gun metal and gold-flecked bronze. Other popular colors for fall and winter are ruby red, sapphire blue, emerald green and tawny amethyst. Tawny, burnt topaz colors are important, too.

Shopping at Allen Jewelers located on Sartori ave., I found an even greater variety in earrings. Earrings with shining full clusters, hoops and danglers can be found among Allen Jewelers most popular costume jewelry. Dropped earrings (see picture) are among the most favorites, easy to wear and easy to put on. Large stones, cut like the real thing with the many facets on the back, stones are all hand set.

Mother-of-Pearl

Other accents for your favorite costume could include a compact with genuine "mother-of-pearl" on one side or both (see picture) hand set, simplicity to the fore. And to match maybe a lipstick case, with "mother-of-pearl" set by hand, surrounding the delicate case. Just fill it with your favorite scent of lipstick.

Allen's has a wide variety to choose from, a piece for every need. Selections of luscious pearls, each pearl knotted for your protection.

Simple and unadorned necklines this fall call for bright and dazzling jeweled accents near the face and with the translucent purses, a lovely compact, or maybe a cigarette case would add to the translucency of the purse.

Woman's Club Host To Marina District

The Torrance Woman's club played host at their recent meeting to 18 executives from their Marina District 18, CFWC, according to Mrs. Lee A. McCoy.

The meeting was called to order at 10 a.m., by district president, Mrs. E. T. Goerz, who also presides over the 21 districts.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Mrs. Dean L. Sears, first vice-president of the Torrance Woman's group, and the National anthem was led by Mrs. George W. Chown, district treasurer. Mrs. Chown was attended by Mrs. James Burchett, music chairman for the Torrance Woman's group.

The meeting consisted mostly of reports of the district executive committee and the district chairman and plans were outlined for the coming year's program.

Accent Placed On Youth

"Youth, Our Investment in the Community, A Dividend of America," is the theme that was selected for the North High School PTA, at their September executive board meeting.

Beginning their second year as a unit, the program committee on the basis that secondary level students have so much to offer through their varied outstanding curriculums, most of the programs for the year will come from within the school. This being possible through the close cooperation between teachers, parents, and students.

Mrs. Kenneth W. McVey, first vice-president, in charge of program, outlined the following as stressing Youth, a personal investment of the PTA in the community. Seeing the students in action in some phase of their work, parents will be reminded that endeavors are rich in dividends.

Included in the schedule, a meeting will be held on Tuesday, October 16, at 8 p.m. The theme will be "Helping a Student Plan His Future." An introduction of faculty members will be made and there will be open visitation to the classrooms. Members at the meeting will also salute the Freshman class.

Program committee have been the following: Mrs. Walter Wudzke, co-chairman; Dale Harter, principal; Mrs. Eldon Morgan, Mrs. L. F. Kohler, Mrs. J. R. Sanders, president; Miss Milton, Mr. Lifton, teachers.

Mrs. Sanders announced her completed executive board as follows: Mmes. Kenneth W. McVey, first vice-president; John Lucas, second vice-president; Joe Begando, third vice-president; Earl Welliver, recording secretary; C. L. Thompson, corresponding secretary; P. L. McMichael, historian; Robert Cage, auditor; Eldon Morgan, parliamentarian; Walter Wudzke, program co-chairman; Richard McDonald, honorary life chairman; T. Rogers, publicity; F. A. Atkins, student welfare; D. A. Hodges, co-chairman; S. H. Odell, magazine; M. C. Clemas, membership; H. Terhagen, co-chairman; hospitality; Mrs. L. F. Kohler; William Sales, courtesy; graduation party, A. B. Cowie; dental health, E. R. Sellmyer; H. C. Allen, juvenile protection; L. Van De Vort, record book.

ARLENE FAYE KOHL BECOMES ENGAGED

On August 25, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wickens announced the engagement of their daughter, Arlene Faye Kohl to Roger Carrell Wear, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Laskey.

Arlene and Roger have set their wedding date for April '57.

Arlene Kohl resides at 1612 West 223rd street. She is a graduate of Narbonne high school and is a member of the Drama and Dance Productions, G.A.A.

Roger Wear, 21012 Shearer street, attended Banning high school and is now employed at H. C. Smith, Oil and Tool company.

Rene Dean Returns from Convention

Rene Dean, 1443 Post avenue, recently returned from Sacramento, where she attended the convention of the "Democratic State Central Committee of California" as a delegate from the Sixty-eighth Assembly district. Mrs. Dean was appointed as delegate by Assemblyman Vince Thomas.

The platform that she represented includes housing, pensions, education, civil rights, and agriculture.

Mrs. Dean and her platform were successful in receiving the election of Tom Carvey as secretary for Southern California. Mr. Carvey has been very active in district, county and state affairs and he was a delegate to the national convention in Chicago.

Roger Kent from Northern California, succeeded Mrs. Liz Snyder as state central committeewoman.

Tom Carvey will present candidate for United States Senator, Richard Richards to this district at a buffet-dinner and dance on September 29 at the national guard armory at 9 p.m.

Mrs. Dean is also local coordinator for this area.

AND LIFE most sweet, as heart to heart speaks kindly when we meet and part.
